- 2. When my soul is faint and thirsty, 'neath the shadow of Your wings There is cool and pleasant shelter, and a fresh and crystal spring And my Savior rests beside me, as we hold communion sweet If I tried, I could not utter what He says when thus we meet What he says when thus we meet
- 3. Only this I know: I tell him all my doubts, my griefs my fears
 Oh how patiently he listens and my sorrowed soul he cheers
 Do you think He ne'er reproves me? What a false friend he would be
 If He never, never told me of the sin which He must see
 Of the sin which He must see
- 4. Would you like to know the sweetness of the secret of the Lord? Go and hide beneath His shadow, this shall then be your reward And whene'er you leave the silence of that happy meeting place You will surely bear the image of the Master in your face Of the Master in your face
